Notice of Nondiscrimination in Health Programs and Activities
Affordable Care Act – Section 1557

Discrimination is Against the Law

Renville County Public Health Services complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin (including limited English proficiency and primary language), sex (including sex characteristics, including intersex traits; pregnancy or related conditions; sexual orientation; gender identity and sex stereotypes; consistent with the scope of sex discrimination described at 45 CFR § 92.101(a)(2)), age, or disability. Renville County Public Health Services does not exclude people or treat them less favorably because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Renville County Public Health Services provides reasonable modifications for individuals with disabilities, and appropriate auxiliary aids and services, including qualified interpreters for individuals with disabilities and information in alternate formats, such as braille or large print, free of charge and in a timely manner, when such modifications, aids, and services are necessary to ensure accessibility and an equal opportunity to participate to individuals with disabilities.

Renville County Public Health provides language assistance services, including electronic and written translated documents and oral interpretation, free of charge and in a timely manner, when such services are a reasonable step to provide meaningful access to an individual with limited English proficiency.

If you need reasonable accommodations, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, and/or language assistance services, contact the Public Health Director or Department Supervisor.

If you believe that Renville County Public Health Services has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability, you can file a grievance with:
